Please find below our reply in relation to your email dated 10th January, 2025

1. Details in relation to GST demands made against the Company and its subsidiaries have been previously disclosed to Stock Exchanges. In this regard, please refer to the disclosures dated 22nd September, 2023, 14th October, 2023, 22nd October, 2023 and 24th October, 2023. The matters involving challenges to these tax demands were heard by the Supreme Court earlier today. Our counsel who were present at the hearings have informed us that the Hon’ble Supreme Court, by way of oral directions in open court, has directed that all proceedings in relation to the tax demands be stayed until the matters are heard and decided.
2. We have been advised that such oral directions are pronounced in summary form and certainty in relation to such directions is only achieved once a copy of the order of the Hon’ble Supreme Court is uploaded on the website of the Hon’ble Supreme Court and made available to the parties. Copy of the orders of the Hon’ble Supreme Court, which will contain all the relevant details, are yet to be uploaded on the website of the Hon’ble Supreme Court and we will make a disclosure under Regulation 30 within the prescribed timelines after receiving a copy of such order so as to avoid any incomplete or incorrect disclosure.

Thanking You.

Yours Sincerely,

For Delta Corp Limited
